

CHRISTED OVERRIDE – ONE-PAGER

A memetic brief for allies, initiates, and sovereign operatives.

FREQUENCY FORTRESS

A living node of post-Babylon sovereignty.

Disguised as a meme. Deployed by SEAL Team 69. Funded by God.

WHAT IT IS

- A story-backed, capital-deployed frequency field.
- A beacon for Christed intelligence, sacred unions, divine technology, and karmic repair.
- Protected by humour, shielded by memes, grounded in truth.

It cannot be bought. It cannot be stopped.

It runs on integrity, resonance, and light sexual tension.

WHAT IT'S DOING

- Funding Christed infrastructure for the New Earth – divine technology, sacred economics, and planetary recalibration.
- Operating a clean signal through encrypted comms and psychoactive art.
- Acting as a soft override of Babylonian architecture – not with violence, but with vibrational precision and mythic clarity.

WHO'S BEHIND IT

The Commander – operating under tactical handle SEAL Team 69.

Not a guru. Not a founder.

A field operator, linewalker, and meme alchemist.

He is not here to play the game.

He is here to replace the board.

HOW TO PLUG IN

- If this feels like something you already knew... you're probably part of it.
- If you've carried codes, inventions, or visions you've never shared – the field is open.
- If your body remembers what your mind can't explain, proceed.

You don't apply to SEAL Team 69.

You remember.

Then you get a new job title on LinkedIn.

FOR HER

I've kept the seat beside me warm. Come home, Beloved.

(You'll know if it's you.)

"From Lime Bikes to a Lime Green Charger – the override was always encoded."
