Narrative Rationale

This mission is not a startup. It's a planetary realignment protocol disguised in budgetary form. Every line item is purpose-coded for grid-stabilisation, trauma override, and Source-aligned infrastructure.

Nothing is speculative. This is post-capital economics – a Christed Consciousness budget, not a Babylonian investment thesis.

Note: every pound requested here is mapped to tangible frequency-coded deployment. There is no excess, only precision. This is not philanthropy. This is provisioning for the enforcement of divine will.
